FALLS THROUGH VIADUCT

Then Boards Train and Continues Journey.

As the C. & O. local No. 16, going east, left Market street yesterday afternoon, a C. & O. employee from an up river town fell off the steps of the cars and dropped through the front street viaduct, passing through the bridge. He escaped without injury. The train stopped, backed up and the man got on, none the worse from the accident.

It was a very close call for had he struck a portion of the bridge he would probably have been thrown back under the wheels. Further particulars of the occurrence are not known.

THOMAS W. PEARCE

Former Maysville Boy and Son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. D. Pearce, Won Birmingham Medal for Oratory.

(Tuesday's Courier-Journal.)

Seventy-three young men comprised the graduating class of the Louisville Male High School and received diplomas at the commencement exercises held last night in the auditorium of the Girls' High School and attended by a capacity crowd. Seven members of the class participated in the oratorical contest for the Robert Worth Bingham medal, the honor going to Thomas W. Pearce, who was declared to be the best speaker by a committee composed of Judge Walter P. Lincoln, Alex G. Barrett, John J. Saunders and Dennis H. Long.

Prof. Samuel B. Tinsley, principal of the school, president, and Dr. Albert B. Weaver, president of the Board of Education, presented the diplomas. Richard M. Best delivered the annual alumni address in which he sought to advise the graduates as to their futures and commending them for their school work.

"In the Hands of a Few" was the subject of the oration of Thomas W. Pearce. It dealt with the control of the masses by the classes and was handled in masterly style.

Thomas W. Pearce was born in Maysville and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. D. Pearce, Mr. Pearce being President of the State National Bank here and also President of the Citizens' National Life Insurance Company, the largest in the South. He now makes his home at Anchorage, near Louisville.

WOO JAN

Chinese Merchant of Ashland, Ky., Tried in Federal Court on Deportation Proceedings.

United States Judge A. M. J. Cochran of Covington, Ky., Monday heard 10 habeas corpus proceedings, instituted by Attorneys Edward G. Godman, of Chicago, Ill., and Proctor K. Martin, of Ashland, Ky., on behalf of their client Woo Jan, merchant of Ashland, Ky. Jan is charged in a warrant by the Department of Labor as an immigrant alien in violation of the Chinese exclusion act and liable for deportation.

Jan claimed to be a resident of this country since 1877 and had been in business in San Francisco and Ashland. It was stated he visited China in 1912 and returned in 1913, bringing his wife with him, and that he was admitted to San Francisco by the immigration officers.

District Attorney Edwin P. Morrow went into the case fully, which ended in the Court taking this matter under submission.

It is too bad that Miss Billy Burke had to mar the euphony of her name by having Ziegfeld attached to it, but the sense of fellowship is stronger than the sense of euphony.—Kentucky State Journal.

"I don't believe in allowing the referendum to become a common nuisance," said Corporation Counsel John A. Sullivan before the Massachusetts Senate committee of ways and means. "The common man without the advantage of education has his limitations, and it is cant and hypocrisy to tell him he is competent to decide every question of any sort which may arise." "Bold doctrine these days," remarks the Boston Herald, "when every politician is shouting from the housetops that 'the people shall rule'."

HOW THE TARIFF AFFECTS PHILADELPHIA.

Congressman J. Hampton Moore has read into the Congressional Record numerous letters he has received from Philadelphia and suburban manufacturers explaining how the Underwood Tariff law has affected their industries. A few of these were published in the Inquirer of yesterday, but there are many more to the same effect. They are unanimous in showing that manufacturing has declined and that an average of only about 60 per cent. of the capacity of the mills is in operation.

These are figures which do not lie and cannot be made to lie. All comparisons are made with the first three months of last year, when nearly every local industry was running at the maximum. As a result many thousands of workmen are unemployed, more than has been the case in this city for 20 years. And this is not all of the story. Nearly everyone of the manufacturers is doing business on a small margin of profit and sometimes without any profit at all. Every effort has been put forth to keep mills running, for machinery deteriorates when idle, and no employer likes to see his force of employees disintegrated.

Smug and mole-eyed Democrats who will not see the truth sit back in their easy chairs and insist that there is no depression, simply because it has not directly affected them. They refuse to look the facts in the face. Because they are not suffering they cannot imagine that there are thousands of homes in this city where there is no income at all.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

THE LIMIT.

(By Jack Wiley)

Shall the flag be made in England?
Kinder riles one up a bit;
Kinder starts the blood a bilin'
Just to merely think of it.
Shall the flag we call "Old Glory"
In a foreign land be made?
This is certainly the limit
Of the foul work of free trade.
Shall the flag be made in England,
Far away, across the deep?
Down with sentiment and feeling?
Buy your bunting where it's cheap?
What care free-trade foes of country?
They've no patriotic pride.
What's the flag but so much dry goods?
Make it on the other side.
Shall the flag be made in England?
Kinder riles one up a bit;
Kinder starts the blood a bilin'
Just to merely think of it.
Work and wages they have taken,
And in idleness men lag;
Taken industry to England;
Now they want to take the flag.

FOOLISH PHILOSOPHY.

A bad penny always turns up, but it hasn't anything on a pug nose, at that.
Money is the root of all evil, whether you have too much or too little.

The poet who serves out burning thoughts shouldn't send them to a powder magazine.
Don't despise the little things. It is a mighty small word, but it causes a lot of trouble.

Sometimes the moon seems to have about the same effect on a girl that booze has on her brother.
Of course it may be true that riches have wings, but we have never met a rich lady who wanted to take us under hers.

Moreover, if the June bride will save her veil it will make a very comfortable kimono for July and August.

As a general thing, when a fat man needs exercise had enough to make him go to work he is in the last stage of despair.

A woman's idea of a bargain is something marked from 30 down to 20, even if it isn't worth 15.

THE BEST YET.

Mistress—"So you are married again, are you, Chloe?"
Do you think you have a good husband this time?"
Chloe—"The best one yet, missus! I is only got to stomp my foot once en shake my fist at that niggah, en he's skeered mos' to death! Looks lak I is gwinter be happier with that niggah than with any husband I is had yit!"

That Emerson Dietrich could have been saved by the keeper was the statement made yesterday by the fiancée of the man who was torn to pieces by lions Sunday.

Senator Camden's statement as to the relation of business to the legislative program received the high praise of President Wilson when the Kentucky colon called at the White House for the first time yesterday.

President Wilson has suggested that the Mason and Dixon line be forgot, and to further such a movement he has given indorsement to a Lincoln Highway from Philadelphia to Gettysburg through Washington.

THE CROPS AND PROSPERITY.

A New York financial writer contends that the people of this country see through a glass so darkly that they do not know what is good for them, and then proceeds to elaborate a theory that not only are exceedingly prosperous times a business right ahead of us, but that they will be more perceptible and of longer duration because of the slackening of trade that has been marked the last few months.

This writer sees the relief in the crop outlook, observing:

"The week's addition to the idle freight cars, and the unemployment which politicians of a certain sort so emphasize, are blessings more disguised. If the cars were not unemployed we should be pleading for relief against a prosperity too great to be endured. If there were no idle hands the harvest would be a greater and perhaps insoluble problem."

"It is cause for no idle congratulation that there is some quietness of trade when the soil is producing millions of tons which must be moved or burned, or exposed to destruction from natural causes, since there are no preparations for warehousing such unprecedented abundance. We have had experience of good trade and good crops together, and we have learned that they are better when they come in series, rather than simultaneously."

This is comforting doctrine and undoubtedly it will be an advantage in the matter of moving the immense wealth on the farms that freight cars in abundance are in readiness and that bank credits are not strained to the uttermost carrying speculative stocks upon margins.

It is true, moreover, that no amount of calamity howling can stand against this splendid production of agricultural wealth. The clouds that have lowered over business—far darker in other countries than this—are beginning to break. There is certain to be a tremendous boom in trade in the near future, and where this is founded on anything as substantial as abundant crops it is likely to prove lasting.—Louisville Post.

KENTUCKY'S ANNIVERSARY.

It was on a June day 122 years ago that Kentucky became a state. It was a glorious day in history. To Europeans, except France, England and Spain, it meant little that they could then realize the importance of but it was significant even to those others. Even the three nations named may not have thought it of much importance to them but it was. Vermont was the first state to be admitted to the union started by the thirteen original colonies. That did not matter much. It did show that the little nation of less than 4,000, 000 of people soon after the Revolutionary war ended victoriously was to grow. But Vermont was small and then it was lying contiguous to the other colonies and in many ways was a part of New Hampshire and Maine. Not so with Kentucky. True, it was for years a county of Virginia, but it was then far over the mountains with no good ways of communication. It was still claimed vigorously by Indians that were the bravest and most daring in the land. It was peopled by hunters and their descendants. It stretched out to the far and unknown West. It bordered on the Mississippi River, and, therefore joined French territory and was not far from Spanish land.

All of these things made it easy for several men of intelligence of the circumscribed kind to oppose the admission of Kentucky to the sisterhood of States. Some of the anticipations were that the state might in the future, when she grew strong through statehood, join with France or Spain and become an enemy of the new nation or even secede herself and become independent. The later machinations of Aaron Burr seem to show that there was some shadow of probability in the wild suspicions that were expressed by those who opposed the admission of Kentucky as the fifteenth state. But it was impossible then to foresee what has since come to pass through the inventions that have been put into practical use and that have given her far more prominence and a deeper affection for the union than can be shown for some of the original thirteen.

It is all well and these facts of history, as well as these hints at what was mere speculation, should make every Kentuckian feel proud that the state has the history that it has, and that the future is so rich in promise. There are more good agencies at work than ever before. The right kind of pride in the right kind of things, and the right kind of conduct is being felt more generally than ever before, and there are many good reasons why we should all cheer for old Kentucky now that she is passing her 122nd anniversary of statehood.—Owensboro Messenger.

COULD NOT STAND ON FEET

Mrs. Baker So Weak—Could Not Do Her Work—Found Relief In Novel Way.

Adrian, Mich.—"I suffered terribly with female weakness and backache and got so weak that I could hardly do my work. When I washed my dishes I had to sit down and when I would sweep the floor I would get so weak that I would have to get down. I got so poorly that my folks thought I was going into consumption. One day I found a piece of paper blowing around the yard and I picked it up and read it. It said 'Saved from the Grave,' and told what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for women. I showed it to my husband and he said, 'Why don't you try it?' So I did, and after I had taken two bottles I felt better and I said to my husband, 'I don't need any more,' and he said 'You had better take it a little longer anyway.' So I took it for three months and got well and strong."—Mrs. ALONZO E. BAKER, 9 Tecumseh St., Adrian, Mich.

Not Well Enough to Work.
In these words is hidden the tragedy of many a woman, housekeeper or wage earner who supports herself and is often helping to support a family, on meagre wages. Whether in house, office, factory, shop, store or kitchen, woman should remember that there is one tried and true remedy for the ills to which all women are prone, and that is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It promotes that vigor which makes work easy. The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

A PITIFUL THING.

(Sun, New York.)

In his Flag Day speech at Washington Monday Mr. Wilson said: "Would it not be a pitiful thing ever to have to make apology and explanation of anything that we ever did under the leadership of this flag carried in the van?"

A pitiful thing, indeed, and Mr. Bryan has been allowed to do it in the Colombian treaty.

SQUIBS.

Astronomers say that in 14,000,000 years not a drop of water will be left on earth. This looks bad for the temperance people.

Between the young man scented with rickies and the young woman seated with cigarettes, the railway passenger gets his money's worth these modern days.

Women jump at conclusions. Is there one of them who doesn't read the last chapter of a novel first?

CHEERING WORDS

From Charles D. Hilles—Says Voters Are Fast Returning to the G. O. P.

New York—"It will take 218 votes to control the next House of Representatives at Washington. The Republicans now figure that they will have that number and more. Their present reckoning gives to them over 220 members, which would give to them a working majority. So far as it can be reckoned at this distance from election they are confident of having 222 Republicans in the next House, which would leave 218 to be divided among the Democrats and what other parties are to be represented." Thus spoke Charles D. Hilles, Chairman of the Republican National Committee.

"Such estimate is based, of course, upon an extensive dwindling of the Progressive vote. With that element entirely out of the way the margin would be much greater. The history of the past year gives abundant reason why this falling off in the Progressive party strength can be reckoned with certainty.

"Vote Is Diminishing"
Every section of the country has declared that the Progressive vote is diminishing with each day of time. In New York it has already fallen off one half. The votes cast for Roosevelt in 1912 were double in number those cast for the Progressive nominee for Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals last fall.

CAN'T SEE THROUGH IT.

(News Leader, Richmond.)

We must confess that we cannot see through the dress problem this year as well as we could in the diaphanous days of 1913.

FRIENDS.

Let us now enjoy a little music. Sing, The Cincinnati Enquirer:

"I had a friend;
I loaned him ten;
I haven't seen
My friend since then."

Emboldened by this the Boston Transcript pipes us:

"I had one, too,
I went his bail,
I wish he now
Was back in jail."

Whereupon the New York Tribune becomes reminiscent and adds:

"A friend had we,
But joined the strife
Against the tramp
Who's now his wife."

Not being able to keep out, the Yonkers Statesman appends:

"We had a friend
He lived next door,
We traded nags—
Must we say more?"

Being somewhat in a hurry we are tickled to death to have The Detroit Free Press say:

"We had a friend—
He doesn't speak;
A summer home
We shared a week."

J. S. Knox Has Message on "Community Building" for Chautauquans.

J. S. Knox, head of the Knox School of Salesmanship and Business Efficiency is a man of many titles. He has been called "The Verbal Volcano," "The Lecturer with a Punch," and "The Greatest Lecturer in America." He is to appear here on the last day of Chautauqua week this summer.

Mr. Knox, whose specialty is salesmanship and business efficiency, is author of several text books on these subjects. These books have been widely used in the United States, Japan, and other countries. His success as a lecturer is due to his knowledge of business conditions and business needs. As a practical and inspiring lecturer he has few equals.

Two lecture tours on the Pacific Coast the second including 100 addresses, were made by Mr. Knox in 1913. He gave from two to four addresses a day for business and educational institutions.

Business men of the city will be particularly interested in the message to be delivered by Mr. Knox at the Chautauqua.

A Bolton church is to be shingled for the first time since 1793. Good material, then.

PRACTICAL PHILOSOPHER.

(American Machinist.)

Real, simon pure, scientific management reduced to its lowest terms is just plain horse-sense applied to the elementary query: "What to do, how and when to do it."

Many times the machining of a surface at first sight seems to suggest performance in one operation, but close study shows that two or three operations give better and speedier results.

If we could only get over the idea that what our neighbors think of us is of prime importance rather than what we think of ourselves, we might be happier and certainly more effective persons.

Raw material is the basic element of finished parts production. Study of the possibilities of improvement in this essential will be found well worth while and will lead to broader and broader ideas for economy.

Example is better than precept and this is particularly true in the world of buyers of machine tools. How often is the reason for using a machine, "We saw it in another shop, it seemed suitable, and so we ordered one."

The porousness of iron under hydraulic pressure has been remedied by treating the metal with a starchy fluid made from potatoes; this has made it permanently water-tight under pressures up to 1500 lb., though not oil-tight.

Augusta.—Geo. Wiley, a farmer of Johnsville, this county, about sixty-five years old, became suddenly demented and attempted to commit suicide by shooting himself with a shotgun. A CONFESSION

Hopes Her Statement, Made Public, will Help Other Women.

Hines, Ala.—"I must confess," says Mrs. Lula Mae Reid, of this place, "that Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done me a great deal of good."

Before I commenced using Cardui, I would spit up everything I ate. I had a tired, sleepy feeling all the time, and was irregular. I could hardly drag around, and would have severe headaches continuously.

Since taking Cardui, I have entirely quit spitting up what I eat. Everything seems to digest all right, and I have gained 10 pounds in weight.

If you are a victim of any of the numerous ills so common to your sex, it is wrong to suffer.

For half a century, Cardui has been relieving just such ills, as is proven by the thousands of letters, similar to the above, which pour into our office, year by year.

Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients which act specifically on the womanly constitution, and helps build the weakened organs back to health and strength.

Cardui has helped others, and will help you, too. Get a bottle today. You won't regret it. Your druggist sells it.

"Tea and Coffee

are just as harmful to children as alcohol is to grown-ups," says Dr. Charlotte Abbey superintendent of the Women's Directory, New York.

The reason why coffee and tea injure anybody is because these beverages contain the poisonous drug, caffeine, (from 1 1/2 to 3 grains to the cup) which physicians have long known affects the heart, stomach and liver.

Children especially, with their delicate nerves, are susceptible to the action of caffeine, and should never be allowed to have tea or coffee or any other beverage containing drugs.

Thousands of adults have found that their headaches, nervousness, indigestion and sleeplessness have vanished when a change was made from coffee and tea to

SOCIAL EVENTS

Party and Dance.

Master Gordon Smoot entertained his girl and boy friends with a party and dance last evening at the home of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. P. G. Smoot in East Third street. The house and lawn were beautifully decorated with Chinese lanterns, flowers and potted plants. The dancing of the evening was at the home of Mrs. Robert Ficklin, next door to the Smoot residence. Refreshments were served at the Smoot home and all together the occasion was one of the pleasantest and most enjoyable of the season.

North Fork Picnic.

Quite a party of young folks from this city went out to the North Fork Sunday in a hay wagon and enjoyed a picnic and fishing party on the banks of that delightful stream. We do not know if the fishing was good, but are very sure the picnicing was. Those composing the party were:

Misses Anna McGlone, Rose and Mary Murphy, Catherine, Abby and Margaret Downey, Marie Cogan, Lilly Middleman and May Powers of Augusta, and Messrs. Max Middleman, James and Riley McGlone, John Murphy, James Brown, Will O'Neal, and Pearce Redmond. Mr. and Mrs. Robert McGlone were willing chaperons for the young people.

HO! FOR THE SAND BAR!

The Aberdeen sand bar, across from this city, is coming into her own again this season with the appearance of the recent hot wave. Several tents and as many house boats are already at the bar and their owners say they will be there the rest of the summer—if the mosquitoes do not get too bad.

Capt. Ben Poyntz and family are encamped on the waters edge at the bar in their house boat. Mr. Henry Pegue and family yesterday pitched their tent on the bar and several more people are preparing to move to the spot. Every afternoon a crowd of bathers from this city go over and enjoy the fine water and delicious breeze. Taken all together the sand bar is a fine place and should be kept working over time the whole summer.

A JOLLY QUARTETTE —A SAD QUARTETTE

Constable McNamara Had a Busy Day Yesterday.

Lud McDonald, Bill Hildebrand, Karl Carpenter and Pleas Mason got a keg of beer to keep them cool and took it to Dieterich's Lane. As the beer got in its work the boys got to mixing things up in general—broken noses and torn clothes—and then Constable McNamara came along and took the quartet in tow. They will explain to Squire Bauer the whys and wherefores.

Lee Spencer concluded his wife needed a dressing down, so he beat her up, and he will tell Squire Bauer the cause. "Cocaine-Mayme", one of Phister avenue's dusky "doves" was causing all kinds of trouble about 12 o'clock last night. Constable McNamara appeared and placed her in the "cooler" for safe keeping.

CHAUTAUQUA TICKETS

Just Eight Days Until the Big Chautauqua Begins.

Do you have your tickets. If not hurry up and get them. About thirty-five local business men guaranteed to furnish the financial backing for this great educational movement and surely the other public spirited citizens will rally to their support.

Those men guaranteed the movement only after enough people had pledged themselves to take tickets, however several that pledged are not disposed to take them stating that they do not "believe" they want them.

It doesn't appear to me that it is a matter of belief, just a matter of breaking or abiding by, the terms of an agreement.

It would greatly facilitate matters if those to whom tickets have been delivered would either call up my office or else send the money around, as we are working hard to get the guarantee fund in the bank before the Chautauqua begins.

CHAUTAUQUA CAMPAIGN

Being Begun in Earnest in This City With Arrival of Second Advance Agent.

From the Redpath Chautauqua offices in Columbus, Ohio, F. O. Williamson arrived today with a new line of advertising for the seven-day program which is to begin here July 1. Mr. Williamson is known as the "9-day man" and will remain here until the arrival of the Chautauqua superintendent and the tent crew, two days before the opening.

Pennant streamers, additional souvenir programs, automobile pennants, Chautauqua hats and window pennants are among the unique forms of Chautauqua advertising to be introduced by the advance man.

Mr. Williamson called at this office upon his arrival in the city, and seemed well pleased with the outlook for a successful Chautauqua. He expects to look over the tent location and see that the grounds are in good condition. He will place window pennants in hundreds of local homes and give the city a real Chautauqua atmosphere with a large supply of pennants and banners.

The Chautauqua hats, which are to be distributed during the coming week are fifty affairs in either red or green—take your pick. The supply of these is limited and doubtless they will be in great demand.

An advertising campaign is to be conducted not only here but in the surrounding communities, through newspapers, bill boards and other mediums of publicity. Many of the Chautauqua automobile pennants have arrived already and they set forth the big event in a very attractive manner.

The date of the Chautauqua is July 1 to July 7, and the tent will be pitched at Beechwood Park.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by Local Applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running, sore, itching, and watery discharge from the ear, and when this discharge is closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. JUDGE FOR YOURSELF

Which Is Better—Try An Experiment or Profit by a Maysville Citizen's Experience.

Something new is an experiment. Must be proved to be as represented. The statement of a manufacturer is not convincing proof of merit.

But the endorsement of friends is. Now supposing you had a bad back, A lame, weak, or aching one. Would you experiment on it? You will read of many so-called cures.

Endorsed by strangers from faraway places.

It's different when the endorsement comes from home.

Easy to prove local testimony.

Read this Maysville case: M. C. Chisholm, 317 E. Second St., Maysville, Ky., says: "There was a time when my kidneys were badly disordered and I was annoyed by many symptoms of kidney complaint. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Wood & Son's Drug Store, removed the trouble and my good health since then is evidence of their merit. I have seen many other cases where Doan's Kidney Pills have proven their worth. My former endorsement of this remedy still holds good."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Chisholm had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

J. WESLEY LEE,

THE GOOD CLOTHES MAN, Second and Market Streets.

AYBE it is an old fashioned idea this notion of putting all the value possible into the car itself—and as little as possible into overhead expense—

But it has given the Paige a positively dominant position among cars of medium price—

Ample capital for operating purposes—no bonded indebtedness—no excessive capitalization—no heavy overhead of any kind to be paid for.

Just a full dollar of car value for every dollar of the selling price.
